STOCKHOLM (UPI)--Three Americans jointly won the Nobel Prize for medicine for "their interpretation of the genetic code and its function in protein synthesis," the Nobel committee of the Carlgline Institute announced Wednesday.

The three are Robert W. Holley of Cornell University, Ithaca, H. Gobind Khorana, University of Wisconsin and Marschall W. Nierenberg of the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Maryland.

PLATTSBURGH, NEW YORK (UPI)--State police had a $250,000 Rembrandt self-portrait hanging in their office Wednesday.

The painting, "Portrait of a Young Man," stolen from the Eastman House Museum in Rochester Jan. 31, was recovered late Tuesday when troopers arrested three men as they met a small plane landing at a county airport with a "bundle of money," according to authorities.

State police would not disclose the amount of money in the bundle.

MINNEAPOLIS, M.NN. (UPI)--Carol Swardson wanted to protest the drafting of a theater director into the army, so she took off all of her clothes in public Tuesday.

The buxom blonde, 32, said she wanted to do something "that was illegal but something that I didn't think was immoral, just like resisting the draft is illegal but it's not immoral."

The man being drafted is Sydney Walter, 33, director of an experimental theater in Minneapolis. Miss Swardson, an actress, stated her protest on the steps of the Federal Building.

Miss Swardson was dressed by the time police arrived and no charges were pressed against her.

to do so in 30 busy days.
Louis J. Fierro, 54, died Monday of cardiac arrest.

A hospital spokesman said Wednesday the cause of Martin's death was not yet known.

The spokesman said Martin had never regained consciousness following surgery Sept 24.

The law regarding qualification for voting in the State of Washington has been modified to reduce the residency requirements. The correct requirement for residency in the state is sixty (60) days to be eligible to vote in elections for president and vice-president.
